

Jennifer Daley has served as the music director at WPC since 2017. She received her Bachelor's in Music Education (Choral) from Furman University and her Master's in Music Education (Choral) from Arizona State University. Jennifer has taught high school choirs for many years and has earned her National Board for Professional Teaching Standards Certification in Music (Early Adolescents through Young Adult). She has previous experience directing the Chancel Choir at Desert Heritage Church and has sung on several praise and worship teams over the years. Jennifer currently sings in the Back Bay Chorale in Boston, MA. She resides in Windham with her husband, two children, two cats, and a dog.