

Mern Ebinger and Mike Hutchings will be leading an 8-week overview of the entire Bible, starting February 2nd at 11 a.m. in the library. Knowing the Bible 101 was selected for its clear, engaging, and informative approach to exploring the Bible, making it enjoyable for both adults and youth. It's a great opportunity for families to participate together!

Books are available for $10 each and can be previewed during the coffee hour. If you'd prefer not to read but still want to join, you're more than welcome—our presentations and discussions offer plenty of valuable insights.

“This Book is for You If...

You have never read the Bible and don't know anything about it. But you are curious and interested in checking the whole thing out.

You are struggling in your life. Maybe you're going through tough times....You want to turn to God for help and answers, and the Bible seems like the way to do it.

Your faith in God is strong, and you have a working knowledge of key verses and passages in the Bible. But you are still not sure how it all fits together, and you could use a review of the basics.”
