

I was raised as a Presbyterian where I grew up in Saxonburg, PA, and attended Saxonburg Memorial Church where I married my husband Bill in 1975. We moved to Massachusetts in 1978 right after the blizzard. We then moved to Derry, New Hampshire in 1981. We adopted our daughter Pam in 1983 from Korea. I started attending WPC and joined in 2003. Larry Nice, the Christian Education Director at that time, asked me to be a helper in the Pre-K Sunday School class (3 & 4 year olds) which lead to my teaching that group for 15 years. I have also served 2 terms as Deacon within my years at WPC.
